Dear Sir/Madam:

I, _____, am writing to request permission to reproduce the image(s) or excerpt(s) listed below. I am not certain whether I need your permission for this, but I would prefer to have it:

See attached list.

The image(s) or excerpt(s) will accompany an essay, written by me, that will appear in a forthcoming issue of Trans Asia Photography, published 2 times a year by Duke University Press and made available to individual subscribers, libraries and other educational institutions.

This grant of permission includes non-exclusive worldwide publishing rights for use of the image(s) or excerpt(s) identified above, in all media and formats, within the article to be included in the journal issue, in whole or in part, with no time restriction.

If you do not control the copyright on the above material, I would appreciate contact information for the proper rights holder(s). Otherwise, your consent confirms that you hold the right to grant the permission requested here.

If you require any additional information, I can be reached at:

Name/Title: _____

Address/Institution: _____

_____

Telephone/Fax/Email: _____

Sincerely,

_____

As rights holder of the above material, I grant permission for its use as described:
